

Airborne Capital Limited ('Airborne Capital') Supports Yamato Holdings Co., Ltd.'s ('Yamato HD') First A321 P2F Freighter Introduction

©YAMATO HOLDINGS CO., LTD.

24th November 2023 – Airborne Capital congratulates Yamato HD on the delivery of its first passenger-to-freighter ('P2F') conversion A321 aircraft.

- Airborne Capital acted as a project manager in assisting Yamato HD with its A321 P2F conversion project.
- Over the course of 2021 to 2023, Airborne Capital provided Yamato HD with assistance and project management services on this program, including sourcing the aircraft and managing the P2F conversion. This ultimately culminated in a successful ferry flight of the aircraft into Narita International Airport, Japan on 6th November 2023.
- Airborne Capital is highly pleased with the outcome of this project, and would like to use this opportunity to congratulate Yamato HD on the addition of the aircraft to its fleet.

Ramki Sundaram, CEO of Airborne Capital said:

"Airborne Capital continues to expand on its advisory capabilities, including project managing a complex freighter conversion transaction. We are delighted that our support for Yamato HD has resulted in a fit-for-purpose aircraft asset, and we would like to thank Yamato HD for the trust they have placed in us."
